A Note From Allison

Hi!

My name is Allison and I am one of the lead agents with The Goodhart Group. I have two little boys and am always searching for fun activities for us to do in Alexandria. From kid-friendly restaurants to pools and parks, pre-schools, daycares, and activities like music lessons or sports leagues, our area has so much to offer for kids and families.

I hope you enjoy our guide for kids in Alexandria. If you have other recommendations that we've missed, please send them my way! If you're thinking about a move in the near future, you might find our guide to moving with kids helpful, which is linked here.

If you have any questions, you can always feel free to reach me directly at allison@thegoodhartgroup.com or on Instagram at @allisongoodhart or @thegoodhartgroup. I'd also encourage you to look at our blog at thegoodhartgroup.com/our-blog/ or sign up for our weekly newsletter to stay up to date on what is happening in our community!

All the best,

Allison

Alexandria Kid Friendly Restaurants

Holy Cow

2312 Mount Vernon Avenue

Looking for delicious hand cut fries, burgers, and shakes? Try out Holy Cow in Del Ray. The relaxed counter service environment is perfect for families and the restaurant is stroller-friendly. The outdoor seating is perfect for when the weather warms up. Holy Cow's kids menu is great for picky eaters.

Faccia Luna

823 S. Washington Street

Faccia Luna was named Best Pizza by Washington City Paper (2015 and 2016) and it deserves the title! Try the Via Toscana, a white pizza with caramelized onions, prosciutto, and smoked gouda or its signature Faccia Luna, with sausage, mushroom, and roasted red peppers. Faccia Luna offers a variety of Italian menu options, including pasta and sandwiches,

Lena's Wood-Fired Pizza and Tap

401 E. Braddock Road

Lena's, an Italian eatery on the edge of Rosemont, has wood-fired pizza and Italian food. Try the diavola pizza with salami, mozzarella, fried kale, and ghost pepper honey (don't worry it's not too spicy) or stick to the classic margherita.

Northside 10

10 E. Glebe Road

Northside 10 has great options for the whole family. You can find a variety of burgers, sandwiches, and salads. Be sure to start with one of the killer appetizers, like the fried Brussel sprouts with bacon and asiago, or the risotto fritters fixed with Gruyere cheese, parmesan, tomato and bacon gravy.

Zento

693 N. Washington Street

Zento has a great sushi and a family-friendly relaxed atmosphere. It is counted in the top Asian restaurants in Alexandria. Choose from one of the sushi assortments served with miso soup and a house salad or try one of their other delicious Asian dishes.

Momo Sushi

212 Queen Street

Momo Sushi's lunch special can't be beat. It's $10.95 lunchtime bento box includes Chicken Teriyaki, a six-piece California Roll, plus salad, rice, and miso soup. For dinner, you can also choose from one of Momo's 10 sushi combos, rice bowls, or yakisoba noodle dishes.

Vola's

101 N Union Street

Offering one of the best waterfront dining views in Old Town, Vola's is a fabulous spot for a seafood lunch. Try the Chesapeake Bay Chowder, made with blue crab, to start. For your main dish, try a lobster roll, blackened grouper sandwich, or firecracker shrimp tacos — with a side of Old Bay Fries, of course. Its "Red Hot Apple Cobbler" is the perfect way to end your meal, with its special ingredient of spicy red hot candies and cooling cinnamon ice cream. Located in the Torpedo Factory, Vola's offers both indoor and outdoor seating as well as the Hi-Tide lounge, a throwback cocktail lounge.

Chadwick's

203 Strand Street

Their slogan "casual dining at its very best" truly lives up to its claim. The perfect quick place to dine in the Southeast Quadrant of Old Town, Chadwick's has a kid-friendly brunch and amazing clam chowder. Visit on a Monday for half-priced burgers all day.

The Majestic

911 King Street

The Majestic owned by the Alexandria Restaurant Partners offers seasonal menus for lunch, dinner, and brunch. The new American restaurant offers an upscale-casual atmosphere. Executive chef Graham Duncan, who served as the opening executive chef for Founding Farmers in D.C., ensures all produce, dairy, and meat are sourced from local farmers in Virginia and Maryland.

Los Tios Grill

2615 Mount Vernon Avenue

This local favorite Tex-Mex grill sits just on the edge of the Avenue, in Del Ray. With huge portion sizes and unbeatable, authentic tastes, Los Tios Grill is Del Ray's go-to spot for school fundraisers, birthday parties, and any other excuse to enjoy the environment inside and out. Los Tios has the best chips and salsa in town, hands down; combined with incredible service and an affordable selection, it is hard to beat this top Del Ray restaurant!

Taqueria el Poblano

2400 Mount Vernon Avenue

Voted in Zagat's Top 10 best Mexican restaurants in the DC area (2014), Mount Vernon Avenue's Taqueria el Poblano's margaritas are said to be "made with lots of TLC." The restaurant has a fabulous neighborhood vibe and very lively atmosphere. Its extensive menu features traditional Mexican favorites like tacos, chile rellenos, enchiladas, and burritos. The friendly and welcoming service at Taqueria el Poblano is yet another reason to stop by!

Pork Barrel BBQ

2312 Mount Vernon Avenue

When Pork Barrel BBQ opened in 2011, it quickly became Del Ray's hottest restaurant. In what is already considered the Avenue's most visited block, Pork Barrel joined Del Ray's famous St. Elmo's Coffee Pub and The Dairy Godmother. Pork Barrel brings nationally ranked BBQ to the heart of Del Ray, attracting BBQ lovers from all over the region to this family-friendly restaurant. It also features arcade games, a sports bar, and outdoor seating. Next door neighbors, Holy Cow and the Sushi Bar, are owned by the same local restaurant group which allows for a connected flow of food and energy across all three dining spaces. After indulging in an award-winning sandwich, the "Del Ray" thing to do is stroll down the block for frozen custard or pastry at the Dairy Godmother.

Namaste

1504 King Street

Take your kids to try Indian food at Namaste in Old Town. The spacious restaurant is family-friendly and has an extensive menu. New to Indian food? The friendly staff always offers great recommendations. The Palak Ki Chat is a delicious appetizer as well as one of their many types of Naan.

Caphe Banh Mi

407 Cameron Street

Tucked away off of King Street is the cozy Caphe Banh Mi offering Vietnamese food that is packed with flavor. Enjoy their pho, Banh Mi sandwiches, summer rolls, rice plates, or vermicelli (a Vietnamese noodle bowl). They even have tofu options for vegetarians and vegans!

Sweet Fire Donna's

510 John Carlyle Street

Looking for fantastic BBQ? Try Sweet Fire Donna's. It is one of the sister restaurants of Holy Cow and Pork Barrel. The cornbread is always fresh and they have a variety of combos. Try their pitmaster's nachos with your choice of meat or their white chicken chilli.

Table Talk

1623 Duke Street

If you are looking for the big, hearty, New Jersey diner feel, then hit Table Talk! All of its homemade classic meals and omelets are served with home fries. Table Talk's generous servings will surely fill you up for the day.

With a variety of menu options, everyone in the family is bound to find something they like with this restaurant.

Stomping Ground

2309 Mount Vernon Avenue

Stomping Ground is a cozy coffee shop known for its fabulous buttermilk biscuits. Make sure to try the "Not So Classic" fried chicken biscuit, made with benne seed tahini, Stomping Ground's special hot sauce, honey, red onion and za'atar. You can also build your own biscuit creation. Stomping Ground prides itself on always using seasonal ingredients, and local and organic whenever ones possible. It is one of our favorite breakfast stops in Alexandria!

Emmy Squared Pizza

124 King Street

After several successful locations in Nashville and New York City, Emmy Squared came to Old Town Alexandria in 2021. Their unique pizza combinations are sure to please any kid. Be sure to try their burger pizza. They also serve up other classics as well for those just wanting cheese or pepperoni.

Mai Thai

6 King Street

Enjoy authentic Thai cuisine on the waterfront in Old Town Alexandria. After dinner stop by Pop's for ice cream and stroll down the Old Town waterfront with the family.

Mia's Italian Kitchen

100 King Street

Located by the water on King Street Mia's, owned by the Alexandria Restaurant Partners, offers brick oven pan pizza, salads, house made pasta and a variety of other Italian specialties. Try one of their $7 personal pizzas and share one of their family style salads.

Del Ray Cafe

205 E Howell Avenue

Served on Saturdays, Sundays and major holidays, the brunch at Del Ray Cafe is delicious. The brunch menu consists of many starters, eggs, and omelets, including the option to create your own omelet. Also, sweet or savory crêpes are available at any time during the day.

Megrolls

107 N. Fayette Street

Megrolls serves all of your favorite cuisines — wrapped up and deep fried! You can order anything from a Gyro Megroll to a chicken parmesan Megroll. Be sure to try the creamy-yet-spicy Cilantro-Ranch slaw as your side.

yet-spicy Cilantro-Ranch slaw as your side. The best part? The price! All Megrolls are either $6.25 or $6.75. Plus, the more you buy, the more you save (save up to $3.75 when you order a dozen).

South Block

106 N. Lee Street

The Goodhart Group loves South Block! Lunch doesn't get any healthier than South Block. Its offerings include an impressive line up of nutrient-packed bowls, smoothies, juices, and toasts. What's not to love about the Nutella Bowl with almond milk, acai, and bananas topped with granola, banana, strawberry, coconut, and a Nutella hazelnut drizzle? Yes, please! Also, check out the Beet Hummus Toast.

Duck Donuts

3610-F King Street

Originally from North Carolina's Outer Banks, these sinful donuts have made their way to Alexandria. Duck Donuts are delicious, handmade and fried to perfection. The toppings are custom-made to your choosing. Make sure you try their signature Maple & Bacon or Powdered Sugar & Blackberry Drizzle donuts!

Dairy Godmother

2301 Mount Vernon Avenue

For Wisconsin-style frozen custard, take a trip to Del Ray to visit The Dairy Godmother (highly recommended by Allison!). What makes frozen custard different from ice cream? Well, it has at least 1.4% pasteurized egg yolk, at least 10% milk fat, and is made in a certain machine using a very specific technique. The result is an amazingly creamy and smooth summer treat. Vanilla and Chocolate custard are available daily, plus a Flavor of the Day. The Dairy Godmother also offers an incredible variety of sorbets (dairy-free!) in enticing flavors like, Lemon Lavender, Strawberry Balsamico, Orange Blossom, Pineapple with Cilantro, Cucumber with Fresh Mint, Pear with Vanilla, and many more.

Pop's

109 King Street

With its old-fashioned atmosphere and fabulous customer service, Pop's Old Fashioned Ice Cream is a local favorite. You can find the usual standby flavors at Pop's, but also some truly unique ones like Kahlua Chocolate Chip, Peanut Butter Chocolate Pretzel, and Carrot Cake. Or try one of their specialty sundaes such as the "Johnny Appleseed," with vanilla ice cream, apple pie chunks, butterscotch, caramel, and whipped cream. A lactose-free soft serve ice cream is also available at Pop's.

Mason Social

728 North Henry Street

Known for its outstanding modern spin on American classic, Mason Social has some great American classics that the whole family can enjoy. They have favorites like shrimp and grits, burgers, fried chicken and mac and cheese. Located right by Old Town this is a welcoming place, where you can find great food. Stop in for Taco Tuesday and enjoy three tacos for just $10.

Trick or Treating

Halloween on a Tuesday? No problem! Old Town trick-or-treaters will be out in full force, even on a school night.

The most popular streets for trick-or-treaters are in the Southeast Quadrant – Lee Street (see #4) and the streets perpendicular to it: Duke, Wolfe, Wilkes, Gibbon and Franklin Streets. The little ones will start trick-or-treating just before dusk so be sure to have your candy ready and porch light(s) on!

Leave the car at home. Many Old Town streets are actually closed to all but pedestrians. If you must drive on Halloween, use extreme caution! Drive very slowly, make all complete stops, don't turn on red, etc. Make sure your little ones are easily seen with some sort of reflector on their costumes. Or give them a glow necklace or bracelet to wear.
